Seminar on collective licensing & Workshop on Copyright solutions

EODOPEN event

London – May 2nd 2024

Co-funded by the
Creative Europe Programme of the European Union

eBooks-On-Demand-Network Opening Publications for European Netizens

Cross-Border Access

- gathering interest, stakeholder input for proof-of-concept model, which combination of licensing between Country A and Country B?

- what are researchers‘ and students‘ needs, re materials abroad?
  how might remote digital access affect research results, quality?
  could cost of international ILL‘s be rechanneled?
  let‘s find out!

- invitation to workshop afternoon May 2nd, University College London
  „Piloting Copyright Solutions:
  Sustainable Digital Access to Library Stacks Abroad“, in-person

Collective Licensing seminar – thoughts and reflections……

- Cross border access to resources.
- Builds networks and partnerships.
- Is scanning/ staff time an issue?
- Copyright considerations

Northumbria University
NEWCASTLE

Copyright and Licensing thoughts...

Next steps

- EODOPEN in final reporting phase.
- EOD-Service (E books on Demand) - continues to develop- interested partners can get in touch.
- DG CNECT continues to end of 2024.
- Digital Knowledge conference - Stockholm 12-13th September.

ThePhoto by PhotoAuthor is licensed under CCYYSA.

•Amanda Foster

•Content Delivery and Copyright Librarian

•amanda.foster@northumbria.ac.uk

•Susan Mair

•Copyright advisor

•susan.mair@northumbria.ac.uk

•Kate Vasili

•Copyright Officer

•K.Vasili@mdx.ac.uk

•Kate Parson

•Project Leader

•Kate.parson@kb.se